

WATA Knows... and you can too!

Health and Safety Courses

IOSH Directing Safely – 1 Day

The WATA route to success

This IOSH accredited course aims to provide Directors/Owners of small to medium enterprises with an understanding of the moral, legal and business case for proactive health and safety management and to give guidance on the effective management of risk. The terms small to medium sized enterprises (SMEs) applies to organisations with less than 250 employees.

What does the course cover?

- Aims and objectives
- Health and safety management - good business sense
- Health and safety - getting it wrong
- Health and safety - getting it right
- Planning for success
- People - your most valuable asset
- How well are you performing?
- Improving performance

On successful completion of 2 short assessment papers, delegates will receive an IOSH certificate.

Who is the course suitable for?

Directors/Owners of SMEs with less than 250 employees

Course Dates

2010: 1 Oct; 1 Dec

2011: 14 Jan; 11 Mar; 6 May; 1 July;
7 Sept; 9 Nov

Course Fees: £250 + VAT per delegate

Including IOSH validation/moderation fee lunch, refreshments and course handouts

Duration:

1 day (9:15 am to 4. 30 pm approximately - please arrive 15 minutes before the course is due to commence)

We provide training in a relaxed atmosphere at our training centre, which is located in Huntingdon, Cambridgeshire